

THE RED FLAG CAMPAIGN

When you see a Red Flag
For dating violence,
say something.

TheRedFlagCampaign.org

Red Flags

Stalking – repeated following, harassment, or other unwanted communication

Isolation – limiting who someone can hang out with

Coercion – using emotional pressure or physical threats to engage in sexual acts

Sexual Assault – pressuring or forcing someone into sexual activity against his/her will

Emotional Abuse – put-downs, name-calling, and other degrading comments

Jealousy – all-consuming possessiveness or suspicion

Victim Blaming – treating someone poorly and then blaming them for it

Resources:

- University Counseling.....458-8590
- Student Health Center (24/7).....458-8401
- Public Safety.....458-8999
- Project Horizon.....463-2594
- CAIR cair.wlu.edu.....458-5800
- Augusta Health (Fishersville).....540-332-4423
- Carilion Stonewall Jackson Hospital..458-3300
- Lexington Police Department.....463-2112
- Rockbridge County Sheriff's Office....463-7328

Judicial Options:

- Specially trained public safety officers - Kay Bostic, Lisa Datz, and Larry Stuart 540-458-8999
- SFHB - hears and adjudicates on-campus allegations of prohibited student discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, hazing by individuals, and retaliation. go.wlu.edu/SFHB
- Legal Action through police or Commonwealth Attorney

When you see a RED FLAG For dating violence, say something.

THE RED FLAG CAMPAIGN®

go.wlu.edu/redflagcampaign

Brought to you by: the Office of Health Promotion • Division of Student Affairs