WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY

FIRST-YEAR AND NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

September 5-10, 2015

First-Year Experience
Division of Student Affairs

✓ 9:00 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Check-In for all First-Year and New Students

Early-Fielding Hall

Please pick up your room key outside of Graham-Lees Hall on Washington Street. Turn over your key to your family, and our W&L upper-division students will assist with the move-in process while you proceed across the street to Early-Fielding to receive your registration and orientation material. Within just a few minutes you will catch up with your family in your room to begin unpacking. All students are required to check-in, including Leading Edge participants, pre-season athletes, international students, and transfers. Be prepared—it's a W&L tradition that it rains either on Check-in day or Commencement day.

11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

“Meat” and Greet (And Veggie Burgers Too!)

Baker-Davis-Gilliam Quad

Take a break from the heat and enjoy some cool refreshments, hamburgers, hotdogs, veggie burgers and salads with your family in the Quad.

2:00 – 2:30 p.m.

President's Welcome to Parents

Lenfest Center, Keller Theater

President Ken Ruscio '76 and Vice-President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students Sidney Evans will share their thoughts and unique perspectives about University life with parents of new students. Parent Information Sessions with key staff members will immediately follow.

Parent Information Sessions

2:30 – 5:00 p.m.

Lenfest Center, Keller Theater & Wilson Theater

2:30 – 3:15 p.m. and 3:30 – 4:15 p.m.

Academic Panel for Parents

Lenfest Center, Keller Theater

Representatives from the offices of the Provost, Dean of the College, and Dean of the Williams School of Commerce, Economics, and Politics will offer reflections on the intellectual life of the University.

3:15 – 3:30 p.m.

Parent Reception

Lenfest Center, Kamen Gallery

Please join us for some refreshments and snacks as you switch rooms to attend the other panel.

2:30 – 3:15 p.m. and 3:30 – 4:15 p.m.

Student Affairs Panel for Parents

Lenfest Center, Wilson Theater

Student Affairs professional staff will provide an overview of life beyond the classroom at W&L, including the wide array of activities, organizations, student services, and leadership opportunities available to students.

4:15 – 5:00 p.m.

Q&A and Parent Reception

Lenfest Center, Kamen Gallery

Key personnel will be available to answer individual questions about Public Safety, Dining, Residence & Greek Life, Student Health & Counseling, Career Development and Student Activities while refreshments and snacks remain available.

5:00 – 6:45 p.m.

First-Year Student Dinner

Evans Dining Hall

New students and their families are invited to experience dinner at the old “D-Hall.” Join us for a glimpse of W&L dining cuisine and a taste of what you can expect during the academic year.

✓ 7:00 p.m.

First-Year Meeting with Resident Advisers

Location posted on your hall

First-year resident advisers meet with their hall residents to review policies, establish certain guidelines, provide basic information, and answer questions about life at W&L. Be sure to change into comfortable clothing for the next event.

✓ 9:00 – 11:00 p.m.

First-Year Olympics

Wilson Field

Lace up your tennis shoes and join us for an evening of activity unlike anything you’ve experienced. Meet dozens of your classmates through a series of interactive competitions under the lights of the stadium.

9:00 – 11:45 a.m.

Students are encouraged to attend religious services at their chosen place of worship. Local faith-community leaders will be available at Check-in on Saturday to share various religious options with students.

10:00 – 11:45 a.m.

Brunch

John W. Elrod University Commons, The Marketplace

Your resident adviser will tell you what time your hall is attending brunch. Please plan to attend with your hall if possible.

✓ Noon – 12:45 p.m.

President's Welcome to New Students

Lee Chapel

President Ken Ruscio '76, Provost Daniel Wubah, Vice-President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students Sidney Evans, and Dean for First-Year Experience Jason Rodocker will offer their insights about University Life to the Class of 2019. Men are required to wear coat and tie; women are required to wear a skirt, slacks or a dress. Cellular telephones should be turned off in Lee Chapel.

✓ 12:45 – 1:30 p.m.

Student Governance Orientation

Lee Chapel

Student-run campus governance is integral to student life at W&L. The Executive Committee (EC) gains its authority through the Board of Trustees and manages the University Honor System. The Student Judicial Council (SJC) is charged by the faculty under the University Bylaws to enforce standards of civility and appropriate conduct that fall outside the Honor System. The Student-Faculty Hearing Board (SFHB) hears and determines cases dealing with sexual misconduct, discrimination or harassment involving W&L students. Students will also have an opportunity to hear from Residential Life leadership.

You, along with your hall, will be assigned to one of the two identical Global and Diverse Society sessions. Please attend with your hall if possible. If you cannot attend at your assigned time, you should attend at the other time.

✓ 2:30 – 3:45 p.m. & 4:00 – 5:15 p.m.

Global and Diverse Society

Lenfest Center, Keller Theater

Washington and Lee University is committed to equality of all persons, regardless of race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, ability, religious affiliation, gender, home country, gender identity, gender expression or any other defining characteristic. Each and every one of you has something special to offer this community, so it is our earnest hope that you will teach one another. Facilitator Dr. Steve Perry will address "Taking the Adversity Out of Diversity."

If you have a conflict with a placement test, please notify Dean for First-Year Experience Jason Rodocker (jrodocker@wlu.edu) as soon as possible.

2:30 – 4:00 p.m.

Math Placement Test

Robinson Hall, Room 105

This test is designed to aid the Mathematics Department in identifying students qualified for placement in courses beyond Calculus I (Math 101). Take this test only if all of the following apply:

- You had at least a half-year of calculus (not necessarily an AP course), AND
- You have not taken either of the Advanced Placement calculus exams (if you took the exams and know your score, then we know what course you should take), AND
- You do not have calculus transfer credit or IB credit (higher level with a 5, 6, or 7 should receive credit), AND
- You wish to take second – or third-term calculus at W&L. (Under advanced standing, if a student is placed in second – or third-term calculus and successfully completes that course with a grade of C or better, full credit will be awarded for any prerequisite course(s) skipped; this option is available only in Fall term.)

You should be present when the test begins at 2:30 p.m. and it lasts approximately an hour. For questions please contact test administrator, Professor Alan McRae (mcraea@wlu.edu).

4:00 – 5:00 p.m.

Latin and Ancient Greek Placement Examination

Early-Fielding Hall, Room 114

All incoming students with academic experience in Latin who intend to take Latin at the college level, including students with AP credit, must take the Latin placement test. You should be present when the test begins at 4:00 p.m. and it lasts approximately an hour. Students with academic experience in Greek should meet with Classics Department Head, Professor Kevin Crotty (crottyk@wlu.edu) immediately prior to or following the Latin exam to be placed in the appropriate level of Greek study.

Arabic Placement

Students interested in studying Arabic should contact Professor Antoine Edwards (edwardsa@wlu.edu) as soon as possible.

Russian Placement

Students interested in studying Russian should contact Professor Anna Brodsky (brodskya@wlu.edu) as soon as possible.

Chinese Placement

Students interested in studying Chinese should contact Professor Yanhong Zhu (zhuy@wlu.edu) as soon as possible.

Japanese Placement
